

Want to Hunt Dinosaur Eggs in a Jungle???

Come to the Mastodon Art/Science Regional Fair

Second Annual Dinosaur Egg Hunt

Jefferson College Field House

March 21, 2009 Hunts start at 10AM

Children and adults can hunt together all day!

There is no specific start time for any age group. Plan to spend at least 4 hours to hunt, participate in the Dino Den activities, do the ASK Rooms (Free 20 minute hand-on workshops that connect the art and science of life) and to visit the 3000 FREE art and science projects from area students!

Food vendors available or bring a picnic lunch.

Prices are as follows:

Dino Egg Hunt Only: $5

Dino Egg Hunt and all Dino Den activities: $8

Dino Den Activities without the hunt $5

Spectator ticket: $3 (All children must be accompanied)

One Free Spectator Ticket per Family/Group

Every egg is a winner!!

Bigger...Better and Back Again!

The Dinosaur Egg Hunt will be held on the Jefferson College Hillsboro campus tennis courts, which will be transformed into a Jurassic Jungle courtesy of Travis and Jennifer Naeger from Amazing Walls and Water Falls, Inc.! There will be eggs and prizes for all ages from toddler to adult! Participants of all ages will enter the Jurassic Jungle, look for eggs of specific colors, participate in hands-on dinosaur activities, and claim their prize.

The Dino Den will feature several family activities.

- See real dinosaur eggs on display from the Bollinger County Museum;
- Be an archeologist in the St. Louis Science Center's Vanasaurus Digging Pits;
- Read Dinosaur books to live support dogs from the PAWS For Reading Program
- Get your picture taken in the Jurassic Jungle.

And much more! Plan to bring the whole family and enjoy the fun!