

Pay "The Fair" Forward

In March 2009, the Mastodon Fair celebrated its 30th Anniversary. Organized by over 300 volunteers, paid for by over 400 donors, the Mastodon Fair was here for your student because someone else "Paid it forward".

Now it is your turn.

Look at the donation form and choose the ways you can do your part. Mail the form in today.

How the Fair Made a Difference

Craig: 1998 1st ISEF Winner. Craig discovered his love of medical science by doing his science project. In 2008, he graduated with his Medical Degree and is currently finishing his residency in Chicago. He is the Fair's first Doctor!

Molly: 14 years old. 2009 Second Place Art Winner and Café Breve art gallery showing winner: "The medallion I won symbolizes my dedication and hard work. I will keep it forever."

Jake: 2002 and 2003 ISEF Winner says, "This is no drill or exercise. The Mastodon Fair is a real opportunity...a launching pad and a catalyst for success." BS in Computer Engineering and working on Masters degree at Missouri S&T.

Chris: 2004 ISEF winner and $1000 College Scholarship winner. "Deep down I knew I could (graduate from college), but winning the Fair made me believe in myself enough to try." 2009 Graduate of Jefferson College, Business Degree. Currently working on a Bachelor's degree. First college graduate in the family.

Meghan: 2004 Art Neo-Renaissance winner and $1000 art scholarship with her photography. She now has her Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts and owns her own photography business. "Winning at Mastodon, with professionals as judges, gave me the confidence to choose a photography career."
